HENRI LOISELLE / MARTIN JANOVSKY

Sunday, January 27, 2013
2:00 pm Watrous Civic Centre

"Frankly Gentlemen, you knocked our socks off!"

Moving freely from Broadway show tunes to music of the 40's to the 60's, Henri Loiseau and Martin Janovsky present a show that is as amazingly diverse as it is unique! Henri's beautiful bass-baritone voice takes his audience on a musical journey with familiar songs such as Tennessee Waltz, It's Now or Never and Wonderful World; Leonard Cohen's Hallelujah, Edith Piaf's Non Rien and his signature If I Were A Rich Man are audience favourites. Martin's virtuoso keeps the audience spellbound with renditions of his favourite compositions such as Hooked on Classics, Twelfth Street Rag or Frank Mills' Music Box Dancer. Having very successful individual careers, their obvious joy in performing together is evident in the fun and camaraderie they share on stage. Together they treat their audiences to superb renditions of the classics, delighting new listeners and having fans returning for a thoroughly enjoyable evening of fun and nostalgic trips down memory lane.

DAVID MYLES

Tuesday, March 26, 2013
7:30 pm, Watrous Civic Centre

With his new album, Into the Sun David Myles whisks us away on an exhilarating musical adventure that explores his long-time love of Brazilian and African music. A pop/folk singer songwriter with a variety of influences, David takes us further afield with this record by introducing rhythms and instrumentations most often reserved for world music audiences. The result is a sound that is uniquely David Myles. With influences as obvious to pop audiences as Paul Simon and as obscure as Brazilian icon Jorge Ben, David is the ideal tour guide. The surprising and intricate songwriting is framed by carefully constructed arrangements, soaring harmonies and flawless musicianship.
